INDUSTRY OPINIONS

"Sports isn't only defined by what happens on the field, but what happens off the field is what truly defines the sports we see today. I am pleased that NASM has taken the steps to focus on sports careers off the field. I am sure NASM would provide quality education in Sports Management and have its students working all around the world in sports."

Luis Figo

Former Real Madrid,
Barcelona & Inter Milan Player

"In today's time of specialisations and global competitiveness, qualified professional Sports Managers are required to fill the gap. National Academy of Sports Management (NASM) is playing a crucial role in the development & growth of sports sector of India by providing a blend of academic rigour with industry training thus creating the Sports Managers of the future. I am happy to see NASM taking this sports management education initiative. NASM is definitely making many dreams come true by providing these professional programmes to the youth of the country."
